

Civil-Military Cooperation

Course structure

The Civil-Military Cooperation course is 1 day in duration and focuses on cooperation in shared airspace. It explains the benefits of sharing the airspace between military and civil aviation, based on the extensive and successful Scandinavian experience.

Prerequisites

- An ATC background.
- English language skills at ICAO level 4 or higher.

More information

Please contact us for more information about the Civil-Military Cooperation course.