

General English Training

Course aim

This course is for students who need to improve or refresh their general English skills to take part in future studies in Aviation English and/or other ATC-related studies.

After completion of this course, the participants:

- Can demonstrate English proficiency level equivalent to CEFR C1.
- Can take part in English training preparing for ICAO Level 4 language proficiency.
- Have sufficient language proficiency to take part in our ATC-related courses.

Course structure

The course is flexible in duration, as its content can be adjusted to the student group's specific needs. Additionally, the duration may depend on the number of students and/or the level of language proficiency in the group.

Our native English-speaking teachers use a variety of training methods to help their students develop their language skills. Methods include classroom lessons, multimedia-based learning, e-learning, lectures and tutorials, group work, self-study, study visits, and off-site activities.
