

On-the-job Training (OJT) Consultancy

To support ANSPs with their on-the-job training (OJT), we provide consultancy services. Our experts offer guidance through the establishment of the core organisational foundation within the ANSPs to be able to conduct successful on-the-job training. We mainly focus on management training, planning functions and processes and the way knowledge is shared within the organisation.